

LAW.

- '60.—L. M. OSGOOD. Practicing office, 23 Court St.
 '66.—H. A. STRONG. Studying at Cambridge.
 '67.—H. B. TERRY. Practicing office, Court St.
 '68.—R. L. ROBERT. Studying in Boston.
 '69.—J. E. ABBOTT. Teaching and studying in Boston.

MINISTRY.

- '60.—S. B. SWEETSER. Union Church, Charlestown.
 '63.—C. A. BARNARD. After practicing law for a time, entered the Boston Theo. Sem., but was obliged to relinquish his plans on account of ill health, and is now in the Police Court.
 '65.—JAMES MUDGE. Lately at the Sem. Is now in Wilbraham, Mass.
 '67.—W. F. SANFORD. After studying medicine for two years, and teaching one year, entered the Sem. Leads a gymnastic class in the same.
 '68.—F. B. HAMBLIN. Entered the Sem. in 1868, and died May 8, 1869.
 '68.—A. B. SMART. Graduated from the Sem. in 1870. Now in East New York.
 '69.—W. F. CRAFTS, of the class of '72 in the Sem. Preaching in Stoneham, Mass., and lecturing occasionally.
 '69.—G. E. REED. Entered the Sem. to remain only a year.
 '69.—J. E. RICHARDS, class of '72 in the Sem. Preaching in Cliftondale, Mass.
 '70.—W. E. DWIGHT. Class of '73 in the Sem.
 '70.—W. H. PETERS. Class of '73 in the Sem.
 '70.—V. W. MATTOON. Class of '73 in the Sem.

MEDICINE.

- '69.—F. E. PORTER. Studying at Harvard Medical School.

SCIENCE.

- '67.—S. H. TROWBRIDGE. Studying in Lawrence Scientific School, and preparing to teach Natural Science in Glasgow, Missouri, where he will be found next year.
 '70.—G. B. GOODE. Studying Paleontology at Harvard.

BUSINESS.

- '63.—J. C. RAND. Sec. of Wes. Union Club of Boston.
 '70.—J. B. THOMAS. In business in a Standard Sugar Refinery, Boston.

'69.—J. E. CASWELL. Studying French and German in the city with a view to teaching.

OTHER PERSONALS.

LANDIS, '62.—We have the following "Co-partnership Notice" from E. V. Landis. "The Printing Business long established at No. 102 Nassau St. by John Polhemus, will hereafter be conducted by Polhemus & Landis, a co-partnership having this day been formed between JOHN POLHEMUS and E. V. LANDIS. All new accounts will be rendered and settled in the name of the firm. With ample facilities for prompt and superior work, we hope to merit, more and more, our increasing patronage. POLHEMUS & LANDIS.

Oct. 17, 1870.

102 Nassau St., N. Y."

PERKINS, '65.—J. N. Perkins has entered Albany Law School to remain one year. Address Albany, N. Y.
 DILKES, '67.—J. A. Dilkes is Prof. of Mathematics at Pennington Seminary, N. J.

NAST, '68.—Albert J. Nast has charge of a German Church at Pittsburgh, Pa.

WOODWARD, '69.—Married, Oct. 18th, by Rev. Mr. Wagner, Rev. Harry Woodward, of Jordanville, N. Y., and Mary Adelaide, daughter of Leonard Spinney, of Charlestown, Mass.

SMITH, '70.—R. W. Smith passed through Boston, Nov. 17th, en route for Nebraska City, Nebraska, where he is to take charge of a high school.

VAN DENBURG, '70.—M. W. Van Denburg is pursuing his favorite study of Ornithology at Wayzata, Minn., about twelve miles from Minneapolis. As an amusement for his leisure hours he has undertaken the management of a shooting gallery, in which he carefully trains the youthful idea. Is housekeeping a short distance from aforesaid schoolhouse.

SQUIRES, '71.—N. J. Squires has so far recovered from his sickness as to be able to return home.

DUNMORE, '71.—W. T. Dunmore has taken a four months' school in Middle Haddam, Ct.

MILLS, '72.—E. M. Mills is teaching at Little City, a few miles down the river. Address, Little City Box, Middletown, Ct.

MEEKER, '73.—J. M. Mecker has left college on account of ill health. Expects to join '74 next year.

ROE, '74.—G. M. Roe left college Nov. 25, to spend the winter in teaching at Middleville, N. Y.

TIDDY, '74.—John Tiddy has left college.