

is devoting a good deal of time to the study of Arabic. He expects to remain in Beirut till the Summer of 1885.

'75. We have received a pretty little sheet, entitled Church and College, of which one of the editors is Rev. R. E. Bisbee, late of the Maine Conference. It is the organ of the Spokane College and Church of Spokane Falls, Washington Territory. Who has ever heard of the place? But here is a pretty village, a good, generous church, and a very promising young college with some sixty-nine students.—Exchange.

'75. Millard M. Parker has opened a private school at Pasadena, Cal., to be known as the Monte Vista School.

'80. W. F. Gordy expects to spend the summer in England.

'81. The members of '81 now resident in Middletown would be glad to know where the rest of the boys are. Send on your addresses and any other information to the class secretary, and be sure to come on for the class reunion at Commencement.

AN '82 BUDGET.—Forgotten '82? Well, hardly. There are still two classes in college that remember the Seniors of year before last, and tell many good stories of them. But '84 is going soon, and then only one class in college will have any but a legendary notion of the men and actions of '82.

Sic transit gloria mundi,—and what a rapid transit it is, too, sometimes.

Well, what's the news? To begin with the clergy, George Brodhead is on his third year at Moore's, Delaware County, Pa. He has enjoyed so far a successful pastorate. Lewis Codding is still in the New England Southern Conference. His appointment is given in the list below. '82 has another minister in perspective, and his name (can you guess it?) is W. M. Puffer. He expects to join the Michigan conference in the fall. Just now he is principal of the high school at Clare, Clare Co., Michigan. Hallock and DeCastro have lately finished their second year of study at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York. They have been much together; Hallock's present address is 41 West 20th St. He expects to be ambulance surgeon during a part of this year and summer.

B. M. Gallien was recently at his home in Albany, N. Y. He left there at the close of last month for his 2000 acre stock farm at Belfield, Billings Co., Dakota. W. H. Cavin, too, has taken to farming. He is settled at Delhi, N. Y.

Jo. Taylor is still teaching at Hamline University. He enjoys his work, which has in it so many reminders of Wesleyan.

Can any one give us information concerning J. L. Hurst?

'83. An old chum anxiously inquires for J. F. Duinkerke. Speak up.

'85. Reed has left college.

'85. Gordy is teaching at Ansonia, to fill a vacancy for a week or so.

'86. One of the local "eds." tells us that W'd'b'y went home last week to have a pair of boots fitted.

'87. Wood has left college.

The conference appointments of Wesleyan men have been crowded out this week.

NATIONAL SCHOOL SUPPLY BUREAU.

BELIOT, WIS., July 31, 1883.

National School Supply Bureau:

Last April, being then in charge of a large public school, but desiring a position in some good academy or college, I placed my name with your Bureau. During the first part of the present month I received notice from you of a vacancy in such a place as I desired.

Putting myself in communication with the party concerned, I received the appointment. I am well satisfied with the management of the Bureau, and feel sure that it fills a useful and necessary place in our school economy. You are at liberty to use my name if you wish.

Respectfully, EDWARD O. FISKE.
